SAD SHAKINGS.

The Earthquake in Spain Still Continuing—Two Thousand Persons Killed Since Christmas.

The Hocking Valley Trouble—Eight Lives Lost at Sea—Prepare to Shiver.

An Insurrection on the Tapis in Constantinople and a Rebellion in South America.

Giving Spain Another Shake.

MADRID, Dec. 31.—Further earthquake shocks were experienced yesterday at Velez, Malaga, a city of about thirty thousand population, a few miles from Malaga. The shocks were of much violence. Many houses were utterly destroyed. The people, terror stricken, abandoned the city altogether and are now encamped outside the town and the telegraph station has been removed to the same place.

A thousand houses at Alphonse are in ruins. The work of searching in the debris for the dead bodies of the victims of the disaster is vigorously prosecuted. Yesterday during the day 192 bodies were recovered. The shocks yesterday were also felt with more or less severity elsewhere throughout the province of Malaga and Granada. They occurred between the hours of 7 and 8 in the morning. There was a further loss of life and destruction of property at Perian, Rio Gordo, Vinuela and Alfozatejo. The estimated total number of persons killed since Christmas is 2,000.

The town of All-queras was completely destroyed and many people perished, among whom were several local officials.

Subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers have been started at Madrid, Malaga and Granada. The king subscribed $5,000.

The New York Senatorship.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The contest over the senatorship at Albany is rapidly assuming national importance. This fact springs from the arguments used by President Arthur's friends in defending his soundness as a republican and a protectionist. The Blaineites are denouncing him as a free trader, and are citing the treaties with Spain and San Domingo as evidence of his hostility to the true interests of protection and the republican party. Declarations of this sort are being effectively used among the republicans of New York in the canvass for the senatorship. Very close personal friends of the president are actively engaged in counteracting the charges of heresy made against him, and in their efforts they are bringing forward considerations which throw a strong light upon the political significance of the proposed commercial treaty.

The Hocking Valley Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 31.—The officers of the Hocking valley railway and the coal exchange report everything quiet in the valley this morning, though they express the opinion that there will be some trouble to-night. They say the demonstrations last night failed to take an active form for the reason that the strikers were met with such a strong force of guards where they were expected to make an attack. They consider the national demonstrations at this time as an effort to keep the miners from breaking from their ranks and going to work as many of them have decided to do. Early this morning several shots were fired at Happy Hollow, but without damage, and this was the extent of the outward demonstration on the part of the unlawful element.

Believed to be American Talent.

MONTREAL, Dec. 31.—The police authorities believe the recent robbery of $10,000 from Lafleur's jewelry store, Notre Dame street, was planned and carried out by Jones, the noted chief of American burglars. Some years ago Jones was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary for robbery but, owing to his wealth and influence succeeded lately in getting his term commuted. Lafleur was foreman of the grand jury that returned true bills against Jones and it is thought the latter put up the job for satisfaction. Jones was at the head of an audacious and desperate gang of burglars in New York and Chicago. He is said to be an extensive real estate owner in Chicago, all made out of his robberies.

MISTAKEN IN THE NAME.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—A Montreal dispatch speaking of the burglary of Brees's jewelry store in that city and the suspicion that the crime had been committed by Jones, the noted American burglar, is supposed to have reference to Jimmy Carroll, whose exploits as an expert bank burglar are well known in this city.

Another Cold Wave.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The thermometer has fallen in this city thirty degrees since midnight and at 9 o'clock this morning stood at twenty-two degrees above zero.

At Omaha the thermometer stands four below; at St. Paul, five above; at Kank, four above; at Fargo, twenty below; at Winnipeg, thirty-two below.

MORE OIL.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—The Citizens' fuel company struck the best quality of petroleum to-day in the Gault well, near Washington, Pennsylvania, at a depth of 2,190 feet. Good developments are expected.

In Rebellion.

BUENA VISTA, via Galveston, Dec. 31.—The states of Santander, Boyaca, Cauca, and Magdalena have been declared in a state of rebellion for some days past. Yesterday the public order was disturbed in Calia, state of Cauca.

Fined for Not Waiting the Curtain on Time.

LIMA, via Galveston, Dec. 31.—Impresario, of the Italian Opera, has been fined forty soles for not raising the curtain punctually at 8 p. m.

A custom house has been established at Ancon, and another will soon be opened at Isabel.

The Snake of an Insurrection.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 31.—Fires of insurrection are smoldering among the populace of this city. The posting of seditious placards is of nightly occurrence. A body of Turks attacked a mill near Pera, a town in Macedonia, and killed and wounded several persons.

The Frothington's Council.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—A meeting of the national committee of the prohibition party and a conference of the leading workers will be held in New York City, January 7 at 10 a. m. The headquarters will be at Murray Hill hotel. The meeting will be at Rev. Stephen Merritt's church.

A Female Engineer.

DETROIT, Dec. 31.—Mrs. Mary E. Cody, a step-daughter of Sol. White, a prominent Canadian politician and member of parliament, was arrested here this morning for forging her mother's name to a note for $250 and getting the money on it from the First National bank, of this city.

Eight Lives Lost.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 31.—A dispatch from Bird's Nest, Va., says: The bark Leona from South America for Philadelphia, with a cargo of sugar, stranded December 27 on Hog Island bar, during thick weather. The vessel broke up before assistance could be rendered. Eight lives were lost only two being saved. The vessel and cargo are a total loss.

A Wreck on the Pennsylvania Road.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 31.—The Washington express on the Pennsylvania road this morning ran into the rear of the Lehigh Valley train, three miles from here. The engineer of the Pennsylvania train was severely hurt and two or three passengers slightly injured. The accident was caused by a heavy fog. The two rear cars of the Lehigh train were wrecked.

The Gallagher Frauds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The charge against William J. Gallagher for alleged participation in the Eighteenth ward election frauds was dismissed before the United States commissioner on motion of the district attorney, this morning. He was immediately rearrested on a bench warrant and taken before the court, giving bail for his appearance next Wednesday for examination.

Claims to Hold the Patent.

BOSTON, Dec. 31.—Jacob Greener, of Elmira, New York, who claims he holds the patent for the mechanism known as the soft pedal in piano fortes, has notified all piano manufacturers that he will hold them responsible for infringing. He has brought suit against Chickering & Sons of this city. The matter affects very large interests. Greener can virtually claim a royalty on every instrument made.

A Small Decrease.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—It is estimated there has been a decrease of $400,000 in the public debt during December. The receipts have been light and the expenditures heavier than usual. The payments on accounts of pensions amounted to over $9,000,000. The United States treasurer to-day mailed checks in payment of interest due January 1 on government securities amounting to $903,612.

Paying the Penalty.

CINCINNATI, December 30.—Judge Sage, of the United States district court, to-day sentenced prisoners, most of whom have been convicted for violating election laws at the recent elections. Robert Berry, James Usher and James McLaughlin were convicted of illegal voting and sentenced to six months in the Hamilton county jail. D. Shannon and Ferdinand Neth, same offense, were sentenced for sixty days in jail. Henry Shaffer and Daniel Kinney for hindering citizens from voting got six months in jail. St. George, a young man hitherto favorably known, was convicted of depositing in the United States mail obscene literature, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Shortly after the sentence was pronounced he swallowed the contents of a bottle supposed to have been poison. An emetic was administered and he recovered. His wife and sisters were present.

JUST, TOO CRUEL.

Introduction of a Device to Detect the Filletings of the Pretty Telephone Girls—The Instrument Exhibited Here for Adoption.

"This is Mr. E. A. Eckert, of New York," said C. C. Perry, manager of the Telephone Exchange, to THE SENTINEL representative last evening. "Mr. Eckert comes here," said Mr. Perry, "to introduce the telephone monitor desk, and a glance at a miniature specimen displayed by the New York man satisfied THE SENTINEL man that love chats with the pretty telephone girls were things of the past. Next week the central telephone office will have a monitor desk and the blue-eyed maiden that says 'hello' will be rudely cut off from dapper youths and old sinners who occasionally breathe soft confidences over the wires. The monitor desk is a sort of a switch board with a nice receiver for the managerial ear and a series of annunciator flaps.

"Now, you see," said the manager, "I can watch the telephone operators and the instant I suspect any girl is flirting with a subscriber, or carrying on a personal conversation with an operator in another exchange, all I have to do is to place a plug in the switch-board, in the hole corresponding with her wire, and I am instantly connected with the circuit on which she is talking. She has no means of knowing that I am listening, and yet I can hear all that is said on both sides. I can listen to as much as I care to, and then I can say 'Come off,' or 'Take a drop,' and both parties hear me. In this manner no girl will dare to fret away her time, for she does not know whether she is talking directly into my ear or not. There is another advantage in the monitor desk. If a subscriber complains about bad service, or a buzzing in the wire, or a broken transmitter, or about anything else he chooses, the girl simply switches him onto my instrument and without leaving my seat I can find out what is the matter from him, explain the trouble and then order the remedy."

THE ROMANCE OF A COUNTESS.

The Viennese Actress Arrives in the City—The Sentimental Dramatist Talks to the Lady About Her Life.

Madame Antonietta Janish, known off the stage as Countess d'Arco, arrived in the city this afternoon with her company and to-night will present "Camille" at the Academy of Music. Madame Janish with her maid are guests of the Avenue house. The countess lives in seclusion, has meals served in her room and does not leave her apartments except to go to the opera house. THE SENTINEL dramatist sent his card to the lady and was permitted to see her. In private life she is as charming as she is on the stage. She is young, handsome, has a sympathetic face, a full, passionate mouth, and eyes that are very dark and full of meaning. She speaks English very correctly, and her foreign idioms add a new charm to our conversational expressions. A reporter of THE SENTINEL found it a somewhat difficult task to induce Mme. Janish to talk about herself, and only succeeded in that task by making art the topic that led up to the artist. Her story is a romance, perhaps a sad one.

"How came you to leave Vienna, madame?" asked the reporter.
"Oh, how I came to leave! I resigned my position in the theater; I washed it all, it seemed useless, and I left it. Yes, I resigned my position; I sold my jewels, my wardrobe, everything. I thought I had no use for money; I had spent much of it and it did me no good, gave me no happiness. When I left I did some little charities for some children who had been dependent on me and I gave a dowry to a girl I had raised. I saw her married, and then I left Vienna. I had in my pocket 1,000 florins, that was all, but I thought it was enough. It was in December, a year ago. Do you know what I did, my friend? I had made up my mind to come to America and try to get some quiet home where I could teach little children—be a teacher, a governess, you call it. My experience after that was sad. I remained in Canada for a time then went to New York, and not a penny in my pocket, when the manager of the Thalia theater sought my services. I might tell you more of my sad story, but I cannot now."

Mme. Janish made her debut in 1867 as the Burg theater, in Vienna, being then not over fifteen years old. She afterward played at the Theater Royal in Berlin, and from there went to the Thalia theater in Hamburg, probably the best school in Germany. She returned to the Burg theater in Vienna in 1871, as a society. She remained faithful with-drew to come to this country. She is now under a three years' contract with Manager Frank L. Gardner. In the spring she will go to Paris to create the leading part in a new play which Sardou is writing for her. She will return to this country in the fall and play in a translation of this play. It is said that Sardou proposes this to revenge himself for the caprices of Sarah Bernhardt.

A CHILD!

TALLMONT, GA., Sept. 12, 1884.—My little son, now seven years old, broke out when he was three weeks with what the doctors called eczema, beginning on the head and gradually spreading over his whole body. He was treated for five years or more by various physicians without relief, and the little boy's health was completely broken down. About a year ago I was induced to use on him Swift's Specific, and two bottles cured him sound and well, and there has been no sign of a return of the disease.

Poisoned by a Nurse.

Some eight years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. The little child languished along until it was about two years old, when the little life was yielded up to the fearful poison. For six long years I have suffered untold misery. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. No language can express my feelings of woe during these long six years. I had the best medical treatment. Several physicians successfully treated me, but all to no purpose. The Mercury and Potash seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. About three months ago I was advised by Swift's Specific. We did so, and I followed it. I had spent so much for medical treatment that we were too poor to buy. Oh! the agony of that moment! Health and happiness with it all came to me, and I have taken Swift's Specific and am now sound and well, once more. Swift's Specific is the best blood purifier in the world, and it is the greatest blessing of the age.
Mrs. T. W. Lox, Greenville, Ala.

A Druggist for 25 Years.

AUBURN, Ala., Sept. 4, 1884.—I am an old pharmacist, and have had to do largely with blood diseases for over twenty years. I have dealt in all kinds of blood purifiers, and do not hesitate to say that Swift's Specific is the best and has given general satisfaction than any other I have ever handled. Last year a student came to my store, quarantined and covered with sores. I recommended S. S. S. He took only three bottles, and the sores disappeared, his throat healed up, and his skin cleared off. His flesh was smooth and fresh as that of a child, and he has gained ten pounds. I scarcely knew him when he returned after an absence of several weeks. He claimed to be cured of his skin and spirit. A number of other cases less malignant have come under my observation, and all with the best results. Swift's Specific for malaria has no superior. Many ladies are using it as a tonic for general debility, and find it the most satisfactory remedy. I have been dealing in Swift's Specific for five years or more, and am satisfied that I do not place too high an estimate upon its merit.

LOCAL NEWS.
Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured thousands of cases of rheumatism. This is abundant reason for belief that it will cure you. Try it.
One thousand men are engaged laying natural gas pipes in Pittsburgh.
Had rheumatism four years—took half a bottle of Athlaphora and have not had a pain since." E. D. Hitchcock, Westville, Ct.
Sir Thomas Gladstone, brother of the premier, has 80,000 acres of land idle on his hands.
Malarial poison is exceedingly insidious in its action. Yet you need not despair so long as you supply yourself with Victoria Pills, the great English antidote for malaria.
King Alfonso, of Spain, is again very ill. He is going soon upon a cruise on the Mediterranean.
When a remedy has proven itself to be a cure for consumption and a perfect lung restorer, it should be kept in every well regulated home. We refer to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a single dose of which will cure an ordinary cold or cough. A few bottles will cure consumption. It is very pleasant to take.
There are 3,000 operatives idle in the town of Amsterdam, N. Y., which has a population of only 9,000.
It is told by Tobias Lear that when General Washington first complained of his cold he advised him to take something. "No," answered Washington, "you know I never take anything for a cold; let it go as it came." But it went to his lungs, and in a few days the nation mourned the loss of its father. How significant the warning? Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup can be obtained of every druggist.
Quill pens are again in fashion. They are well adapted for the large, angular penmanship now in favor among ladies.
The universal verdict, "The Hop Plaster is the best porous plaster ever made." Only 25 cents.
A writer in the Texas Courier of Medicine says that which will cause a man to sneeze will cure him of hiccup.
Time is Money.
Time and money will be saved by keeping Kidney-Wort in the house. It is an invaluable remedy for all disorders of the kidneys, liver and bowels and for all disorders arising from obstructions of these organs. It has cured many obstinate cases after hundreds of dollars had been paid to physicians without obtaining relief. It cures constipation, piles, biliousness and all kindred disorders. Keep it by you.

The Preacher Can't Preach
Unless he has good digestion and his blood is in prime condition. Sleepy sermons, weary congregations and broken down churches result from the best efforts of dyspeptic and debilitated clergymen. There is no better tonic and health restorer for the minister or anyone else who is broken down, than Brown's Iron Bitters. It is within the reach of every one of the 50,000 clergymen of this country. The Rev. T. Marshall West, Elliott's Mills, Md., speaks with pleasure of how this valuable medicine cured his debility and dyspepsia.

John B. Gough has in forty-two years delivered nearly 9,000 temperance lectures, involving almost 500,000 miles of travel.

How He Got Relief.
Mr. Charles Bennett, 5 Deaneys road, Stratford, Essex, England, writes that on the occasion of receiving a bad sprain and bruises on the cricket field, he obtained great relief from the use of St. Jacobs Oil. The great German remedy is the special specific for bruises, pains and aches, used by all athletes.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winalow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Lead & Wy.

Cure of Asthma and Spinal weakness.
389 West 22 Street, New York, May 17, '88.
Though it may be irregular for a physician to give a certificate in favor of a proprietary medicine still, in the cause of humanity, I venture to say a word in favor of Alcock's Porous Plaster, which I esteem the most remarkable external remedy of this century.
I have known these plasters to cure spinal weakness where the patient had been confined for months to his bed. A blacksmith of my acquaintance was severely injured in the back by the kick of a horse; four Alcock's Porous Plasters quickly relieved him of excruciating agony and cured him in a week. Another patient, suffering from neuralgia of the heart, was completely cured in four hours.
In Asthma, I know of a case where they were worn for three months and fully restored the health. In another case where a patient had sporadic cholera, nothing relieved him until he put on three of Alcock's Porous Plasters; in twelve hours all pains in his chest and stomach had disappeared. I know that these plasters applied on the pit of the stomach, are a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and constipation.
Finally, if persons once use Alcock's Porous Plasters they will never use any other; they are so pleasant, quick and painless—nature's balmic assistant.
H. C. VAN NOORDEN, M. D.
"Alcock's" is the only genuine porous plaster.

The real murderer of the Jewish girl, Sarah Becker, for whose murder Moronowicz received a heavy sentence at Moscow, has confessed.

DYSPEPSIA
Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind. Very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.
"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for dyspepsia, from which I have suffered two years. I tried many other medicines, but none proved so satisfactory as Hood's Sarsaparilla." THOMAS COOK, Brush Electric Light Co., New York City.
Sick Headache
"For the past two years I have been afflicted with severe headaches and dyspepsia. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have found great relief. I cheerfully recommend it to all." MRS. E. F. ANSELME, New Haven, Conn.
Mrs. Mary C. Smith, Cambridgeport, Mass., was a sufferer from dyspepsia and sick headache. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it the best remedy she ever used.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Made only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.
